Reviews of the The Strong Shall Live by Louis L'Amour

1. Na

These are wonderful short stories. I think it is harder to write short stories because everything has to come together and be interesting, exciting, meaningful so quickly. L'Amour is a master of the western but also of the short story. Authors of any genre should study him. Very subtle, very powerful, great fun.

2. Umdwyn

I used to prefer his novels, but once I tried the short stories I was hooked. This particular collection is very appealing to me for its focus on overcoming obstacles. Sometimes its nice to think that through effort alone we can come off the victor over injustice. Of course, in real life that isn't always the case, but in LL's world it does. That makes for enjoyable reading.

3. Runeshaper

Only had a few left of L'Amour's novels left to read and accidentally bought this short story collection. I was initially annoyed with myself as I prefer a full length L'Amour yarn. Sometimes a mistake works out well thank you! A great collection.....enjoy

4. Marige

The short stories from The Strong Shall Live, are as good as all the other stories Louis L`Amour are great.

5. Daizil

I much prefer full length, single story novels, but Louis L'Amour is VERY GOOD at short stories.

6. Beranyle

Louis Lamour is my brother-in-law's favorite books.

7. Realistic

He left the best story for last. He's a master storyteller and short, crisp, gripping action stories were he forte.

8. Great plot, I thoroughly enjoyed reading this book.
