In #1 New York Times bestselling author Iris Johansen's gripping novel of romantic suspense, a man's lust for revenge turns into an obsession with his brother's wife. Beautiful actress Mallory Thane endured the harsh, unforgiving glare of publicity during the trial in which she stood accused of murdering her husband. But even the acquittal that set her free couldn't ease the heartache of her ordeal. Desperate to get back her life, her career, and her sanity, she accepts a new movie deal on an island paradise—only to realize that she has walked into a trap. Her captor is power player Sabin Wyatt, a dark, enigmatic man who still holds Mallory responsible for his brother Ben's death. But at the root of his scheme is his obsessive need to possess the woman who haunts his dreams, no matter what truth she's hiding.

3. AfinaS

I don't know why but I've read Notorious at least half a dozen times, I suppose it just ticks all the boxes for me.

4. Celace

From a court room to a carriage in Central Park, and a bunch of places in between, our main character is accused and abused. But she finds true love just the same A good fast read.

5. Burisi

I enjoyed reading this book again.

6. Ylal

I loved it! The story was unbelievable and totally unrealistic but the result was an obsessed hero, a great heroine and one true love, just the way I like it!

7. Nicanagy

This was an early work by Iris Johansen, and I found myself being irritated by the lack of interpersonal development between the hero and heroine. Okay for a light read.

8. I like kooks with dominant male characters.. Author knows how to capture and keep her readers' interest. I love Johansen's books.
